SIBERIAN HUSKY WELFARE ASSOCIATION (UK)

Request to Relinquish Ownership

IMPORTANT NOTICE

To all those considering giving up your dog for adoption

If you relinquish your dog to us for whatever reason, please understand that this is a PERMANENT arrangement. We cannot foster, kennel or look after your dogs on a temporary basis. Once your dog is collected by us, the dog will be assessed and rehomed to a suitable permanent home as soon as possible. It is important that you realise this and do not come back to us months later asking for your dog to be returned to you. This will not happen - the dog has already suffered the trauma of being rehomed the first time. It would never be in the dog's best interest for that to happen again—and it is the dog's best interest which concern us, not the humans.

Please Note: Please be completely honest about your reasons for giving up your dog. We cannot take on dogs who are aggressive towards humans, or which are very dog aggressive. If we find that we have been misled about the dog's behaviour and/or temperament, the relinquishing agreement will be null and void and the owner of the dog will be responsible for any medical, veterinary or material costs incurred while in the care of SHWA(UK).

I request the Siberian Husky Welfare Association (UK) to take unconditional possession of my/our Siberian Husky, detailed below:
